“ I pursued the MBA program at Wayne State College to further my career in the business world. My undergraduate was in the sciences, but I changed careers about five years into the field. I started a small business as a side gig and realized I liked business a lot more than what I was currently doing. I went into a family business and never looked back! I decided to grow my business knowledge by pursuing an MBA degree. I looked at a number of different institutions, but I kept coming back to WSC due to the affordability, ease of online classes, and flexible schedule. I had to learn to juggle my professional and family life by adjusting my workload for the upcoming semester. I was able to start taking quite a few courses at once and dialed back once the business was up and running. The MBA program gave me a great overview of different business objectives. Each core class I use in everyday life - whether it be reading through financial statements or communicating effectively with employees. I would strongly recommend the MBA program at WSC. I was very pleased with the education I received and directly correlate the promotion of my success to the program. ”

“ I decided to pursue an MBA to satisfy a personal education goal after 20 years of leadership in the medical profession. I chose Wayne State College's MBA because I valued the online flexibility of the program. I wanted a MBA, but I did not have an undergraduate degree in business, so the opportunity to complete preparatory background modules instead of an undergraduate class was ideal, plus a GRE was not required. This low-cost program option is accredited.

I routinely work a 40+ hour work week. I volunteer in both professional activities and at my church. The flexibility of Wayne State College was perfect because the instructors were understanding and most assignments included a completion window as a deadline. The benefit of MBA program to my personal career is invaluable because it has provided a didactic knowledge to complement my work experience.

I have already recommended this program to several of my peers, who have already enrolled in the program. ”
